

TUSD Kids First announces Endorsements for the 2016 Tucson Unified School District Governing Board Election

September 15, 2016, Tucson, AZ – TUSD Kids First, a non-partisan and Independent Expenditure Committee, announces its endorsements for the 2016 governing board election for the Tucson Unified School District (TUSD).

TUSD Kids First is proud to endorse...

Brett Rustand, Mark Stegeman and Betts Putman-Hidalgo

...for the TUSD board because of their commitment to improving the district for all kids and their belief that TUSD can become an exemplary school district by providing the resources to empower principals and teachers. Endorsements are based on responses to a TUSD Kids First sponsored survey submitted to each candidate, which included questions related to TUSD Kids First's "Excellence in 365" program and the candidates' vision, history and commitment to leadership necessary to make TUSD a place of excellence. The survey also addressed how each candidate is committed to the overall community as well as their financial support and overall viability as candidates. TUSD Kids First believes with the election of Brett Rustand, Mark Stegeman and Betts Putman-Hidalgo, TUSD would be much better positioned to fulfill its obligations to our kids and teachers. TUSD Kids First appreciates the time spent by each candidate and their desire to serve the public.

About TUSD Kids First

TUSD Kids First is a non-partisan and Independent Expenditure Committee dedicated to improving the Tucson Unified School District for all children and teachers while providing a safe learning environment that is relentlessly focused on student achievement. More information at <http://tusdkidsfirst.org>

Media Inquiries: Please send inquiries to TUSDKidsFirst@gmail.com